$12.50 to $20 Silk Frocks For $8.95

This Offering Due to a Cancellation Order of Big Western Firm Because Frocks Were Delayed in Shipment.

This western firm figuratively had "cold feet," and were afraid to accept these Silk Dresses, when they were delayed in shipment, because of continued cold weather. We saw merit in the frocks, took the whole lot, and secured with these about 150 "samples" that make the offering a most noteworthy one.

Silks such as Rajahs, Striped Taffeta, Checked Taffeta, Bordered Foulards, Striped Foulards, Striped Messaline, Dotted Foulards, few of plain color silks. Styles are the latest, embracing high or "Dutch" neck with narrow insert of lace; peasant sleeves with a suggestion of lace cuff, narrow skirts, some with deep flounce of plain color satin to match predominating note of color in the frock; some finished at waist with crushed girdle; others with cord girdle finished with knotted

Every color combination one could want and plenty of the fashionable black-and-white effects.

The sizes are such that girls from 14 to 18 years of age can be fitted, as can also women who wear sizes ranging from 34 to 44.

Easter is near, and if you have decided on buying a silk frock this is surely your opportunity to secure one at a price you'll not be able to duplicate later. Sale-Second Floor-Suit and Dress Section.

The Summit of Style Beauty & Value Giving Reached in rimmed Hats at $5

The fashion-wise woman can find no flaw in the style correctness of these charming models. The moderateness of the price is due largely to clever buying and planning, for the beauty and val-ue of these hats is far beyond the price set upon them. In fact, it would take much searching to find the equal of many of these hats at less than $10.00 in other stores. Probably over 400 new Hats at $5.00 to make selection from, embracing all the newest and cleverest style ideas, made of rough and plain braid. Simply or fetchingly trimmed with feathers, wings and novelties. Come Saturday and see the handsomest and most becoming hats ever priced so modestly as $5.00.
